

POP ART

A GALLERY-STYLE MAKEOVER THAT'S PERFECTLY SUITED TO THE ARTFUL OWNERS WHO LIVE HERE.

Emerald-green chairs punctuate the spare, minimalist dining room of Lisa Diamond Katz and David Katz (with kids Sadie and Sam) like show-stopping jewels. Dark panelling was painted white, and ornate crown moulding was removed, making the 8½' ceiling seem higher than it is. The low placement of the art and its horizontal orientation serve the same visual purpose. Smoky glass accessories add up-to-the-minute detail, while a papier-mâché pigeon brings a touch of whimsy. Table by Moooi, chairs by Thonet, Klaus; artwork by Peter Andrew, sculpture by Jet Melencio, Art Interiors.
