

“WE LOVE THE JUXTAPOSITION OF TRADITIONAL AND CONTEMPORARY – IT’S WHAT MAKES THIS HOUSE, AS A WHOLE, SO INTERESTING. GOOD DESIGN GOES WELL WITH GOOD DESIGN, REGARDLESS OF THE PERIOD”

Adjacent to the kitchen and breakfast area, the family room has all the practical quotidian requirements of family life — hard-wearing floors, comfortable seating and a big TV — but it’s still in sync with the design of the spaces around it. Two origami-like coffee tables by E15 add a shot of playful colour and allow for better circulation. “We’ve been collecting pieces like these from Klaus and Italinteriors for over 15 years,” says Lisa. Coffee tables, oak chair by Alvar Aalto, rug by Moroso, lamp by Moooi, throw by Hay, pillows by Alexander Girard for Maharam, Klaus, sofas by Flexform, Italinteriors; credenza by Izm, Hollace Cluny; art (by window) by Maclean, sculpture by Gosia, Art Interiors.
